

Before My Eyes

Is there a one-eyed monster
in your living room
eating up your electricity . . .
using up your time . . .
filling up your precious mind . . .
with visions of evil on the screen?

Scripture teaches you and me
in Psalm 101, verse 3
"I will set no wicked thing before my eyes."
God wants nothing less than perfect holiness
to inherit the righteous robe of Christ.

Don't give your mind to the evil eye.
Fix your eyes instead on Christ.
He is coming soon, not to a TV room,
for every eye will see Him in the sky.

Time in running short,
the channel list is growing long.
May we never turn the monster on to roam.
We can pull the plug or give it one last "hug"
and, with a heave-ho, remove it from our home.

Instead of television,
we can tell of Ellen's visions
or share about the stories in God's Word.
Reach not for remote controls
but reach out to precious souls
and "Well done my faithful servant"
will be heard.

Yes, every eye will see Him.
Are you prepared to meet Him
when every eye will see Him in the sky?

"Whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things." Philippians 4:8
